“Opalescence”, oil paintings by Dorchester artist Vincent Crotty, will immerse you into his world of light and shadow. His canvases are full with brilliant and moody colors and textures. He chooses land and seascapes of both serene and bustling locations. Vincent has been exhibiting for over 35 years, with gallery shows in Ireland and throughout the US. His paintings have been recognized with awards from the Massachusetts Cultural Council, the John Stobart Foundation, Plein Air Magazine, and plein air competitions internationally.

A selection of fifteen signed fine art prints from the permanent collection of the Milton Art Museum is also on display. The exhibit is a grouping of 20th century, signed, limited edition fine art prints by Bemelmans, Calder, Dali, Hundertwasser, Léger, Motherwell, Warhol, and others.

This Member of the Month Showcase features Quincy resident Dan Meyers III. Dan is a long time member of the Quincy Art Association, where he teaches Portrait and Figure Sculpture and coordinates a Life Drawing Class. Dan’s exhibit includes thirty-three works of drawings in charcoal, pastel, and pencil, oil paintings and his breathtaking sculptures. Dan’s a master sculptor with many prestigious awards.
