

Shared Habitat Earth - Artscope Email blast 02/13/2023

Shared Habitat Earth (SHE) suggests cross species respect, intercultural solidarity, and a shared sense of responsibility. At a time when life on our planet is in imminent danger, the artists have made it the focus of their work, calling for action and social justice. Featuring over 30 Boston-area artists' work.

Special Earth Day events in Quincy include outdoor workshops, and talks by Kaveh Mojtai, Publisher of Artscope magazine: "How Arts Build Community and Awareness" and Nathan Phillips, Professor of Earth and Environment at Boston University. (April 22, 1-4pm)
